The church newsletter of Rossville United Methodist Church - Rossville, IN Life often presents us with a series of difficulties. These can produce many emotions and even questions about how to deal with the daily struggles and situations which come along.

Starting on the last Sunday of May and running through the month of June, we are going to be looking at some of these issues including stress, dealing with failure, depression, stagnation, and loneliness.

In addition to these issues, we are having a special service on Tuesday evening June 8th at 7pm. This worship service is "A Service of Healing". I and others will be praying healing prayers for anyone who desires healing in any area of life, or even prayers of healing for other situations we are made aware of. Many people have suffered physical, emotional, and spiritual setbacks especially over the past year. This service will give us an opportunity to present these to the Lord and be prayed for individually. Feel free to invite someone to this service that does not attend our church who would benefit from a healing prayer.

As we come to the last month of the first half of 2021, this sermon series, and the healing service I believe will go a long way in moving us forward in our faith and into the future God has planned for us as a congregation here at Rossville United Methodist Church.

You are welcome to join us for these services this month.

In the name of the God who heals,

Pastor Bob Raschka

Beginning Sunday, July 4, 2021, worship services will begin at 10:30 am.

INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION JUNE 11th-12th, 2021

The 2021 session of the Indiana Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church will meet June 11th and 12th. The theme of the conference is based upon Jesus' words in Matthew 5:9, when He said, "Blessed are the Peacemakers." This year's session is being held completely virtually through a zoom link. The conference will still include an ordination service and a memorial service as well as presentations by many of the conference wide ministries across the state and voting on the 2022 budget and any other issues which come before the conference.

Please note, this is the Indiana Conference and NOT the General Conference which meets in August of 2022. There will be no votes about any proposed protocols about the future of the denomination at this conference. Elaine Hathaway is our lay delegate to conference this year. Pastor Bob continues as our clergy delegate.
